

LeRoi Newbold

LeRoi Newbold is an educator, community organization and parent/caregiver. LeRoi recently completed his masters at York University in Black Liberatory Education. Currently LeRoi works for the Centre of Excellence for Black Student Achievement in the TDSB, where in his formal role he designed Afrocentric/Black focused curriculum and taught at the Africentric Alternative School for 10 years. Additionally, LeRoi is a co-director of FreedomSchool—Toronto, which is a youth and parent driven initiative that intervenes to fight anti-Black racism in the school system and to create educational alternatives for Black children.

External links: www.freedomschooltoronto.ca