

Office Manager Job Posting, Elementary Teachers of Toronto

Full-time, permanent position

About Us

The Elementary Teachers of Toronto Union is the local Union of the Elementary Teachers' Federation of Ontario (ETFO). We are seeking an office manager to support our in-person local Union office.

The successful candidate will join an office team of fourteen elected Teacher Union representatives, and a staff team comprised of a current Office Manager, an Organizer, and a Communications, Research, and External Relations Manager who serve our membership.

We represent over 10,000 contract teachers who work in the Toronto District School Board. Our local represents and serves the professional needs of our members, including with a wide variety of committees, programs and services that both protect and enhance the working lives of our members.

In addition to our core work supporting our ETT membership, our local and our members are very active in our community supporting the public education system, and a variety of community organizations and charitable causes.

We work continuously to provide an environment celebrating the diversity of our members and ETT reaches out to the broader community to foster a climate of equity and social justice.

The Office Manager position follows the public school calendar, and you will have the ability to combine in person, and remote work in this job.
