Fighting for the Schools Our Students Deserve

ELLIE CHAN & MAUREEN ANGLIN

WORKSHOP FACILITATORS

Financial Literacy Resources for Teachers and Students

United for Literacy was funded by the Ontario Ministry of Education to develop FREE financial literacy resources. They are suitable for Grades 4 to 12, and include teacher's guides, ready-to-use PowerPoint lessons, projects, and more! Our OCT-accredited teacher will provide everything you need to feel confident about teaching financial literacy.

ABOUT ELLIE AND MAUREEN

Leslyn Ferguson is an experienced educator with a focus on literacy, equity and anti-oppression in the early years. She is committed to effective literacy instruction for all children, through an anti-racist lens. Leslyn strives to create inclusive learning environments, aiming to make a positive impact on students' educational experiences.

Maureen has a Master's in Adult Education and a Bachelor of Education. She has experience teaching and managing and led national program evaluation initiatives. Since 2005, she has worked with the Ontario Ministry of Education to create Financial Literacy resources and build community-based programs that complement the formal education system.
