We Make The Future:
Fighting for the Schools Our Students Deserve

CRISTINA MARQUES & JILLIAN WILLIAMS

WORKSHOP FACILITATORS

Connecting Threads

Workshop presenters will share strategies for building relationships with students and discuss why these connections are crucial for student success. Presenters will also address common challenges in relationship-building and provide proactive solutions. Participants will explore practical strategies for building trust, understanding students' needs, and creating a supportive environment. Participants will leave the session with practical tools to establish strong connections with their students.
