

Indigenous Award

In recognition of the contributions made by members, the ETT Awards Committee has created the Indigenous Award. The ETT Member Service Committee's goal is to raise awareness of the importance of Indigenous issues, anti-racism, social justice, social responsibility, peace principles, and equity in all levels of our communities. This award may be given to one member who integrates Indigenous ideas and values into their teaching philosophy. ETT members are encouraged to submit nominees from all divisions, including primary, junior, and intermediate. A sum of $100.00 shall be given to each recipient of this award. A teacher may be the recipient of this award once during their career. The recipients of the Indigenous Award shall be recognized at the Annual Dinner.

Criteria:

The Indigenous Award may be granted to a current ETT member who:

- a) shows social responsibility by taking initiative and bringing about positive awareness of Indigenous issues;
- b) regularly embeds Indigenous values, ideas, and teachings in lessons and activities;
- c) shows leadership that positively affects the lives of students and school culture; and
- d) has a passionate attitude towards equity and is an excellent role model.
