

Ontario Education Unions Stand Together in Solidarity to Support Public Education

On Monday, August 17th, Kezia Motluk, HDEAA President & Chair of EWAO-ATEO (far left), attended ETFO's Annual General Meeting.

The education unions are standing in solidarity and working together to defend public education, protect worker's rights, and provide better supports to students
